1. You will recall that [REDACTED] participated in the debriefing of [REDACTED] in September of 1962. One of the reports compiled on the basis of information obtained by [REDACTED] is titled: "Procurement of Western Embargoed Commodities by Hungary". This report was disseminated to the Department of Commerce. We have recently received a communication from them concerning this report and we quote the following paragraph for your information:

"Subject report has generated extreme interest in the Department of Commerce. Your interrogator has obviously followed our requirements very well and is to be congratulated on a superb piece of work".
